- Books
- Electronic books, serials and databases
- Magazines, newspapers and journals
- INTERNET access for registered students (MCC and MSU-Meridian students)
- Computer learning commons
- DVD’s
- CD’s
- Self-service copy machines
- OPTELEC Reader and Kurzweil Reading Edge

Off-campus electronic access: The catalog and some electronic databases are accessible through the campus website at www.meridiancc.edu. Students should check with their instructors or the librarians for the codes.

Most books may be checked out for two weeks. E-books, reserve books and AV materials are checked out for varying time periods. It is your responsibility to know the due date since fines are charged for overdue materials. Fines are set at 25 cents per day/per item for books. Reserve items, AV materials and textbooks overdue charges are higher. You may have out up to five books on any one subject with a total of 12 books out at any one time.

The Production Center is housed on the lower level of the Library building.
